Hello.

I'm Calvin. I concept and design interfaces for screens of all shapes and sizes. I love eating the whole enchilada, from wireframes and prototypes to final art direction and visual design.

I'm based in Brooklyn, New York and currently open for new opportunities.

8 Years Experience.

Senior Art Director @ Domani Studios

Brooklyn, New York
August 2011 - December 2014 (3 years 5 months)

- Created and led user experience design as a new key competency of the creative team.
- Taught the creative team animation skills to help sell and present their ideas better.
- Lead the design on award-winning projects for clients such as Starwood Hotels, Estée Lauder, Luxury Brand Partners, National Academy Museum and the New England Aquarium.
- Recognition includes projects that won Awwwards Site of the Day, FWA Site of the Day and featured on Designspiration and Site Inspire.

Senior Interactive Designer @ Clemenger BBDO Melbourne

Melbourne, Australia
Decemeber 2006 - June 2011 (4 years 7 months)

- Defined the award winning design and development capabilities of a developing digital studio within a full-service advertising agency.
- Designed, developed and deployed Flash applications and microsites for online advertising, touch displays and experiential sites.
- Mentored interactive designers on technical and design direction for emerging web technologies.
- In partnership with my copywriter, Nick Kelly, we won the Australian Young Lions (Cyber) competition in 2010, winning the privilege to represent Australia at the International Young Lions Competition at Cannes Advertising Festival (runner-up).
